Good Luck, Sabino! Have a Good Trip to Hawaii!

On September 4th, when most of the teams in southern Arizona will be lining up against local rivals, coach Jeff Scurran and his Sabino crew will be in Hawaii, participating in the Shawn Akina Memorial Classic. The Sabercats are part of a triple-header that day; their opponent will be Waianae High School, a fine team that was runnerup in the state last year after bowing to Honolulu St. Louis High School in the Hawaiian Prep Bowl.

By the way, Mesa Mountain View High School will battle St. Louis High on August 29th as an earlier contest in this classic, which honors a former all-state quarterback from Hawaii who died of a heart attack as a freshman at the University of Utah.

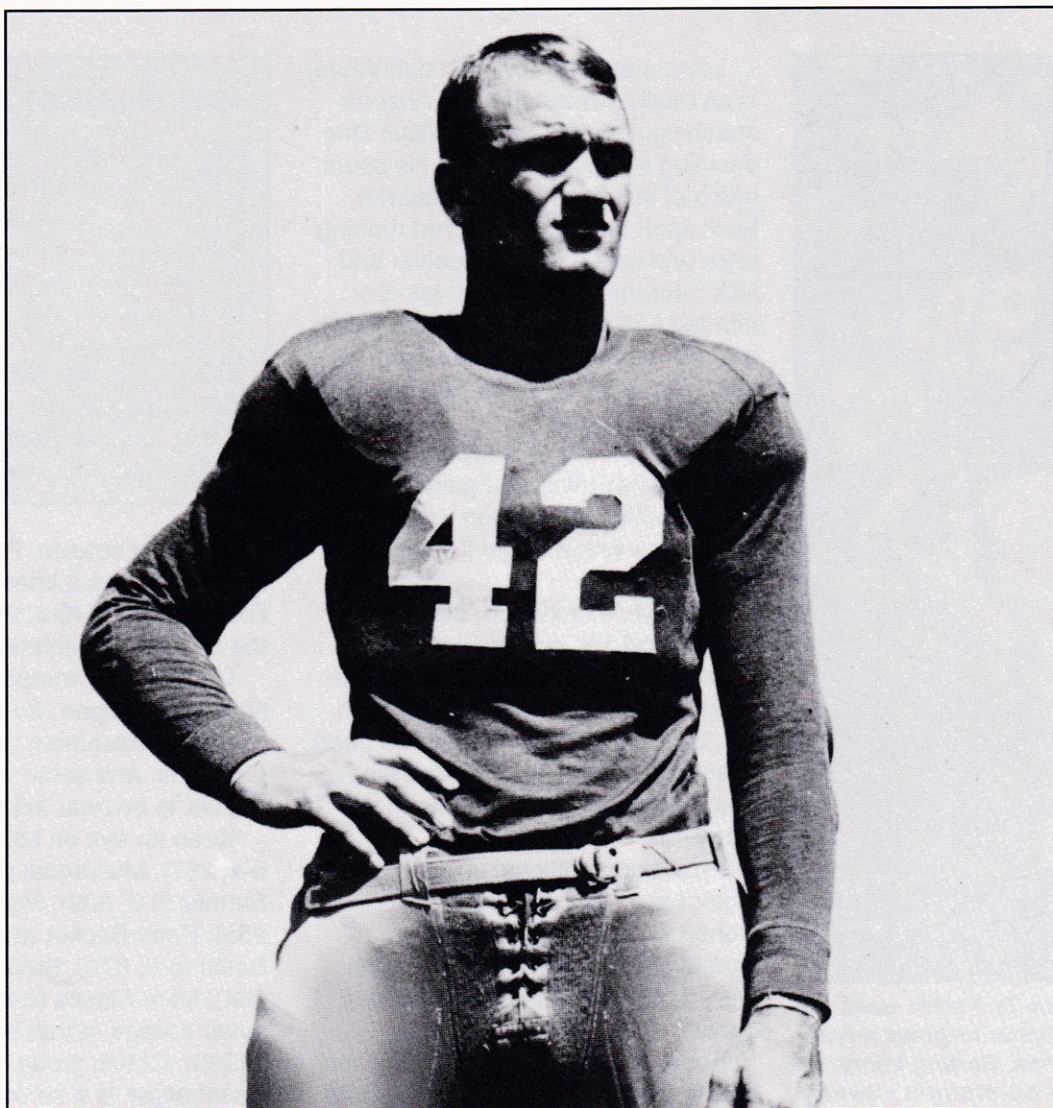

These appearances by Tucson Sabino and Mesa Mountain View will mark the first time in Arizona prep history that a team from our state has played a high school football game in Hawaii.

Saluting a Trojan Legend

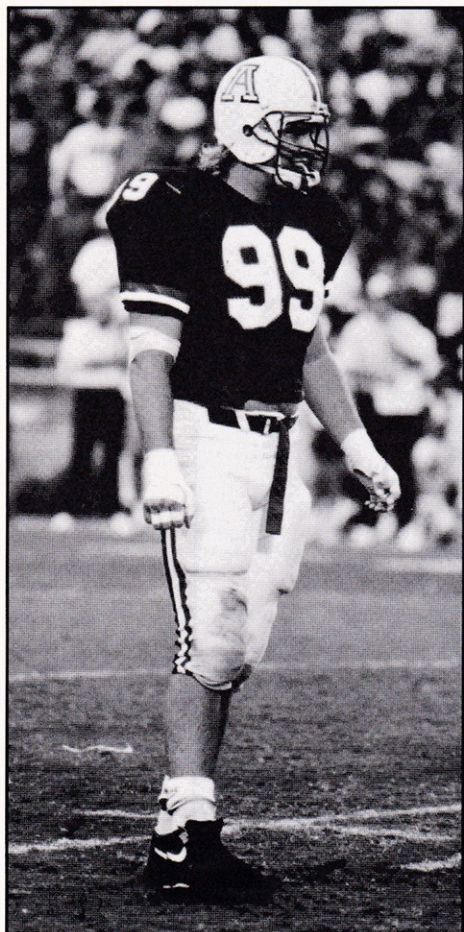

All-American and Pro Star Henry Stanton

The 1937 all-state end at Clifton Union High School, later a football and baseball star at the University of Arizona, was selected first-team All-America end for the Wildcats in 1941, and team MVP. After World War II, Hank was a starting end with the New York Yankees of the All-America Conference, which later merged with the National Football League in 1950.

Arizona Wildcats Aim For Pac-10 First Division Finish

Defensive lineman Ty Parten uses his 6-6, 271-pound frame to great advantage in the trenches. Barring injury, he should have an outstanding senior year for the Cats.

The Wildcats suffered through an surprisingly long 1991 season.

A season filled with injury after injury. A season that produced just four wins in eleven contests. A season that had to be one of the toughest in Dick Tomey's career.

But it's a new year now and there's every reason to believe that prospects for '92 are considerably better.

As always, the Cats are expected to have a strong running game. The quality and depth of their runners are definitely a team strength. The trio of Chuck Levy, Ontiwaun Carter and Billy Johnson are excellent.

Levy, a 6-0, 197-pound sophomore, is so multi-talented that the Arizona coaching staff has had a difficult time deciding where to play him. He spent much of last season at the quarterback spot, but he also played running back and was a terrific receiver and kick returner. For the year, he contributed 628 yards rushing, 500 yards passing and 289 yards receiving. He also hit paydirt 10 times. Not bad for a redshirt freshman.

Carter (5-9, 171) stepped right in as a true freshman and gained 635 yards rushing the pigskin. He's a quick back with a bright future in Tucson.

Meanwhile, Johnson, the fullback at 5-10 and 196 pounds, was the leading ball carrier for the Cats, rambling for 705 yards on 116 carries in '91. Still just a junior, he has two good years left at Arizona, if he can recover from an offseason Achilles tendon injury.

Providing additional support are junior Lamont Lovett, freshman Robert Coulter and JC transfer Demetrist Cornish. Incoming frosh Gary Taylor could also have some impact.

For a change in recent history, the quarterback position is set going into the '92 season. Senior George Malauulu (6-0, 193) is the man this fall. Obviously, if the Wildcats can become more effective in their passing attack, the offense should sparkle. Malauulu, who has suffered through his own injury problems in Tucson, will try to improve on his 674 yards passing of a year ago. Heath Bray has moved over from the secondary to serve as Malauulu's backup.

The receiving corps has talent, although the Cats haven't thrown the ball effectively enough for any eye-popping totals. Wideouts Terry Vaughn (5-8, 170) and Lamar Lovett (5-9, 175) combined for 41 receptions for nearly 500 yards (but just two scores) last season. Provided he's recovered from a knee injury, tight end Richard Griffith (6-5, 256) is among the best in the conference.

Up front, the competition for playing time is wide-open. Several youngsters played as freshmen, due to the injury problems. And some of the veterans appear to be near full strength again.

Keep an eye on Mike Heesbergen (6-4, 287), Mu Tagoai (6-4, 290), Paul Stamer (6-3, 239), Mani Ott (6-3, 255), Peter Becker (6-3, 245), Warner Smith (6-2, 270), Pulu Poumele (6-3, 264), Mike Ciasca (6-6, 286) and junior college recruit Eric Johnson (6-2, 290). Of this group, only Heesbergen is a senior.

Along the defensive front, the Cats will also be improved. The threesome of juniors Rob Waldrop (6-2, 263), Jimmie Hopkins (6-5, 254) and senior Ty Parten (6-6, 271) are penciled in as starters, while soph Jim Hoffman (6-4, 263), redshirt frosh Tedy Bruschi (6-1, 250) and soph Hichem El-Mashtoub (6-2, 269) are listed on the second-team.

However, incoming recruits like JC All-America Tamasi Amituanai (6-3, 320) and highly-regarded freshman Chuck Osborne (6-3, 265) may also be up to the task at hand.

The outside backers are seniors Richard Maddox (6-1, 237) and Jamel Lee (6-2, 215). Maddox was the

There is very little that Chuck Levy cannot do on a football field. Though just a sophomore, he has already established himself as one of the most explosive players in the Pac-10 Conference.

Wildcats' top pass rusher in '90, before an injury took him out of action last year. He's a good one with NFL potential.

Lee can also play, but junior Corey Pittman (6-1, 214) should push for playing time at this spot too.

The inside linebacking duties belong to sophomores Sean Harris (6-3, 235) and Charlie Camp (5-11, 213). Harris, a former standout at Tucson High School, demonstrated superior skills as a frosh and should be a fixture in the Arizona defense for years to come. Camp, a native of Louisiana, is a bit undersized, but he finds the football.

Senior Marcel Wade is expected to bounce back from an injury-plagued '91 campaign. If he does, this 6-3, 249-pounder could really add some quality and depth to the inside linebacking corps.

The secondary is strong, with the likes of Darryl Morrison, Tony Bouie, Mike Scurlock and Keshon Johnson in uniform.

Morrison is a 5-11, 187-pound cornerback from Glendale (Ariz.) Community College. He stepped in as a junior last season and led the team in interceptions. He grabbed three and returned them for a total of 67 yards, including one score.

Bouie (5-10, 180) had a terrific freshman season, leading the Cats in tackles with 86, including 63 solos.

Scurlock (5-11, 198) is another standout sophomore who spent most of '91 at inside linebacker. He too had to battle injuries, but he's a strong safety now. And he'll be a good one.

Johnson (5-11, 175) is the only defensive back penciled in as a regular who didn't start a year ago. He'll occupy the corner opposite Morrison and Tomey anticipates that he'll perform at a very high level.

Many of the non-starters in the secondary are untested, although juniors Jey Phillips (6-2, 180) and James Francis (6-1, 195) have been in the Wildcat program long enough to respond when needed.

The placekicker is sophomore Steve McLaughlin, another Tucson prep product, who booted three field goals and 29 extra points last fall.

Adam Grand averaged 37 yards a punt as a junior in '91 and the job should be his again this year.

The schedule is absolutely brutal from midseason on. But the Cats have a chance to put some wins in the bank if they can play well from the opening kickoff.

And for a team that had its ego bruised last year, that's important!

EASTERN ARIZONA

Again, outstanding individual performers are not lacking in Thatcher, where head coach Don Conrad's forces face another tough junior college schedule. Depth is the problem. This evil obstacle faces the Gila Monsters each year. Lack of quality depth. It's a problem they've learned to live with.

But the Monsters have several of the top players in the league, starting at center with sophomore Mark Romero, a 6-5, 285-pounder from Tucson. "He did a good job as a freshman," claims one member of Eastern's staff. "But he should be much improved because of a good effort off-season. He's tough, quick for his size, and quick off the ball."

Another Tucson product who looks good is defensive lineman Michael Bravin (5-10, 240), an exceptionally tough player who is a good team leader. Although short, he did an outstanding job as a frosh last year.

The rest of the crop looks good, including former Globe running back Gabe Aguilar (5-10, 180), Flagstaff linebacker Josh Packer (6-1, 230), Snowflake wide receiver Doug Paulsen (6-2, 190), and Canadian Kevin Maines, a 6-2, 260-pound defensive lineman who could be an impact player.

Aguilar broke a couple of long runs last year, has a great attitude and is very strong.

Packer goes to the ball really well and might be one of the team's best players.

Paulsen has good moves, good hands and good speed, just what a receiver needs.

Still, a lack of top-notch support players makes the road ahead look rocky for the Gila Monsters.

ARIZONA WESTERN

The Matadors, who once ruled the league, have been going through more coaches than players – it seems – in recent years. This fall, Walt Criner, a former successful head coach at Snow College in Utah, takes over at the Yuma school.

"We will be competitive in the conference from the start," says Criner, 27-14 in the JC ranks.

Although Western will have its usual share of good skill players, it is the men in the trenches who will make the Matadors click. Offensive linemen Roger McCauley (6-5, 270), center Lilo Aiu (6-0, 265), defensive lineman Jon Atchison (6-1, 220) and offensive tackle Chris Ruhf (6-3, 260) are four wide bodies with Division I pigskin potential.

Speedy Kevin Williams (6-2, 195) is the team's best linebacker. Derrick Mency (6-0, 190), Phillip McFadden (5-10, 170) and Greg Jack (6-1, 200) roam the secondary.

Roger Williams (6-0, 210) is the Matadors' starting fullback. Charles Rackley (5-9, 170) is the tailback.

But Criner's biggest weapon might be the kicking game, where punter Robert Koning's 42.6 average was one of the best in the junior college ranks.

Every player listed is a sophomore, so Criner and his staff have a good, solid group of experienced players to build on. Of course, Criner – like all the other junior college coaches – will be searching through his freshman class for some key contributors.

It's CDO, Amphi & Salpointe in 5A South

Last year, the three playoff positions in the 5A South went to Salpointe, Canyon del Oro and Amphitheater. The most likely scenario in 1992 is a repeat performance, although the CDO Dorados are the favorites this time around.

Coach Rick Werbylo has 13 starters back in uniform, including some excellent skill position players. "As long as we maintain the (good) work ethic, we could be very, very good," says Werbylo. "We must improve defensively in order to advance through the playoffs."

Werbylo, his staff and the CDO players deserve tremendous credit for a great turnaround; they fought back from a lowly 2-8 mark in 1990 to a classy 8-3 record in '91. And the best may be yet to come.

Of course, the Amphi and Salpointe squads have their own ideas about the upcoming campaign and a CDO march to the title is certainly not part of those plans.

Coach Vern Friedli's Panthers return some fine performers from last year's 7-4 club, while coach Patrick Welchert at Salpointe will try to carry on without Chris Hopkins, a great running back now at Arizona State University.

Tucson High is a solid choice to finish at least fourth – if not higher. It shapes up to be another competitive year in the 5A South.

CANYON DEL ORO

The Dorados have much to offer in '92. Any team with a player like Andy Sense is dangerous. But when you add the likes of Jason Verdugo, Junior Rickman, etc., look out!

Sense figures to be one of the better players in the state. He's a 6-1, 205-pound running back-linebacker with 4.6 speed. He ran for 537 yards, added another 160 yards on 15 pass receptions and scored a dozen touchdowns in '91 – good enough for all-league honors.

The 6-2, 183-pound Verdugo is invaluable. He's The Dorado starting signal caller, in addition to handling most of the CDO kicking chores. In his spare time, he plays some defensive back.

Rickman is a first-class receiver, as proven by his second-team all-league accolades as a junior. He's a big target for Verdugo on offense and he should also see plenty of action in the secondary.

The mainstays in the line are Tom Parker (6-2, 220) and Sean Coutts (6-2, 210), both seniors. Another notable is senior Eric Rogers, a 5-11, 190-pounder who teams with Sense at linebacker.

AMPHITHEATER

The Panthers registered a 7-4 varsity mark last season, hitting the playoffs again. The JV finished with a fine 5-2-1 slate. With 16 lettermen back and the graduates of the junior varsity, Amphi could be playoff-bound one more time.

Coach Vern Friedli anticipates that a half dozen veterans will lead the way. Watch for seniors David Couture, Carlos Lee, John Joiner, Beau Tribolet, James Llamas and junior Andre Haymore to stand out.

Couture (6-2, 220) is the next in a long line of outstanding Amphi linebackers. Tribolet (6-2, 215) is another backer to keep your eye on. Lee (5-10, 185) and Joiner (5-10, 190) both specialize at running back and cornerback. Llamas (5-10, 230) is a powerful force in the trenches, while Haymore ...

Well, Haymore is a lightning-quick 5-9, 175-pound running back who should sparkle for the Panthers this year and next. In fact, this youngster might be the next best thing to having a fourth Bates brother – since Marion, Michael and Mario have all moved on to continue their pigskin careers at higher levels after starring for Amphi.

SALPOINTE

How do you replace a Chris Hopkins? He simply dominated league play last year, scooting for an incredible 2,107 yards and 31 touchdowns, while carrying his mates to the league title and a spot in the 5A state title game.

You don't replace him. You just do your best to rebuild and hope you have a player like him again in your career.

That's what Salpointe head mentor Patrick Welchert will do in '92. On the plus side, the coach has 12 lettermen back from his 10-3-1 unit of a year ago.

Headlining that group is linebacker John Valgardson (6-0, 210), linebacker Frankie Busch (6-0, 190) and split end Mario Rodriguez (5-7, 150), all twelfth-graders.

And what is Welchert looking forward to this year? "Work. Work. Work."

TUCSON

"if our line develops by league play," says head mentor Todd Mayfield, "we could be a contender for a playoff spot."

Mayfield has 18 veterans back from last year's 5-5 unit. Pacing that group will be Kurt King, a highly regarded running back-defensive back. He's a 6-1, 180-pound senior with 4.7 speed.

Garth Davies (6-1, 170) should be the quarterback, while RB Tavarise Nunn (5-8, 160), WR Malik Rice (5-6, 130) and WR Tim Adams (6-0, 170) will try to make some big plays.

The dynamic duo of Ernesto Escarcega (6-2, 195) and Justin Domagalski (6-4, 250) should be big pluses in the trenches and Escarcega is a terrific outside linebacker as well. He can really run.

Others to watch in the lines are Abie Aguilar (5-10, 195) and Billy Jimenez (6-0, 190), both seniors.

The Badgers are certainly experienced; they're definitely a team to watch.

PUEBLO

Coach Saturnino Santa Cruz expects a rebuilding year at Pueblo, where the Warriors will try to improve on last season's 5-5 slate.

A pair of senior standouts – WR/DB Fidencio Bernal (6-3, 170) and DL Phillip Born (6-2, 235) – could be in for big campaigns.

Additional support is available from seniors Ricardo Sanchez (6-0, 205, LB), Juan Robles (5-11, 175, LB), Gilbert Hernandez (6-0, 185, OL) and junior Ariel Cramer (5-7, 230).

It'll be tough for Pueblo to move up through the 5A South ranks, but the Warriors could surprise.

SIERRA VISTA BUENA

Larry Wooldridge thinks his Colts will be much improved over the sub-par Buena club of a year, one that finished with a 3-8 ledger.

"We have outstanding speed along with experience," says Wooldridge. Certainly, Stacy Roar (5-10, 195) has both of those traits, as well as some fine talent. He'll be invaluable at both running back and defensive end.

Senior Lee Church (6-1, 225) is another good one; he'll line up at offensive tackle and linebacker. Despite his good size, he has 4.95 speed in the 40.

Church should receive plenty of help in the offensive line from D.J. McConville (6-0, 205, Sr.), Bryan Babich (6-0, 185, Sr.), Brad Branning (6-1, 240, Jr.), Alex Mabiis (5-10, 190, Jr.), Jimmy Malone (5-10, 190, Sr.), David La Roque (6-3, 225, Jr.), Brock Root (6-0, 185, Jr.), Michael Ross (6-1, 180, Sr.), Andy Ross (6-1, 180, Sr.), Jayson Smith (6-0, 185, Sr.) and Charles Swift (6-1, 190, Sr.), all of whom will also see action on the defensive front or at one of the backer positions.

Right now, the most likely starter at quarterback appears to be junior Chuck Cunningham (5-7, 150). Other skill position performers are TB/CB Jeff Anderson (5-7, 160, Sr.), FB/LB Curtis Adam (5-10, 175, Jr.), SE/S Mike Patrick (6-2, 180, Jr.), TB/CB Adrian Redding (6-0, 175, Jr.) and FB/LB James Selusi (6-0, 205, Jr.).

Transfers Rafael Palacio (5-6, 170), Mac Penn (5-7, 170) and Gerald Wells (5-9, 170), all seniors, have good speed and should contribute to the Buena offensive attack.

The kicking chores belong to junior Danny Salazar.

The start of the '92 season is crucial to the Colts, as they attempt to put the troubles of '91 behind them. We may have picked them too low in the league race; it's difficult to predict what this squad will do.

RINCON

Bouncing back from a 1-9 finish won't be easy, but coach Lance Prickett and his 10 returning lettermen are approaching the '92 season with a positive attitude.

Prickett anticipates five veterans will lead his team. That would be RB/DB Steve Donderewicz (5-11, 174), RB/DB Chad Mitchell (5-10, 170), RB/DB Travis Hulett (5-10, 170), WR/LB Jeff Haynes (5-11, 175) and junior RB/LB Chad Lewis (5-11, 190). In order to be successful, the Rangers need some youngsters to perform in the trenches.

Interesting 4A Race On Tap

Sahuaro, Sabino Region Picks

You have an exciting club. You score points in bunches and give up points only every once in a while. You put together 13 straight victories and storm into the state 4A title game as the heavy favorite to win it all. Your team is being compared to some of the better ones in state history.

And you lose that championship contest, 28-0. (That was to Avondale's Agua Fria High School.)

That, in a nutshell, was the '91 campaign for the Sahuaro Cougars. Is it possible for a 13-1 season to be disappointing?

It is if your number one goal is to reach perfection. Sahuaro didn't quite get there last fall, but it's time to kick it off again. Coach Howard Breinig and his crew will lead another fine contingent of 4A powerhouses from the South into state championship contention.

Watch for Sunnyside and Nogales to challenge the Cougars in the 4A Kino, while always-tough Sabino will battle Mountain View and Flowing Wells in the 4A Sonoran.

SAHUARO

Breinig has his guys going in the right direction, that's for sure. This time, he welcomes back 15 varsity lettermen and the standouts from last year's 7-1 JV. It's a balanced group.

Certainly, the line will catch your eye. It features seniors Bill Schaidt (6-2, 225), Matt Goerke (5-10, 200), Aaron Halle (6-3, 225), Daren Halle (6-3, 225), Jesse Romero (6-2, 220), Robert Gregory (5-7, 180), Kevin Kiser (6-2, 210), Michael Reilly (6-4, 230) and junior Todd Thompson (6-5, 245).

Schaidt earned second-team all-league recognition in '91 – on both offense and defense. The Halle twins can play. Goerke is good. Thompson will play some tight end in his spare time. And so on.

Keying the running game will be senior backs Jamey Durbin (5-10, 170), George Golaz (6-0, 205) and Jason Lopez (6-0, 180). Juniors Scott Eggerman (6-0, 170), Fred Jenkins (5-10, 180) and Josh Litz (5-8, 190) are also capable ball carriers.

Steve Horton, apparently, has transferred from Sabino and could be the starting signal caller, although junior Chris Peshut (6-0, 180) is there too.

The wideouts include senior Brent Tocher (6-0, 185), plus juniors Howard Bartol (6-0, 180) and Charles Everett (5-10, 165).

Barring unforeseen difficulties, Sahuaro appears headed for the playoffs again.

SUNNYSIDE

The Blue Devils are loaded. An amazing 26 returning lettermen are raring to go. And this bunch made the playoffs last year, posting a commendable 7-3 mark before they were bounced out of the playoffs by – you guessed it – Agua Fria.

"We have a good core of returning players at Sunnyside," says coach Don Fuente. "If we can develop the skill positions and kicking game, we should provide a challenge."

Junior Diego Rico (5-11, 170) and senior Greg Ortiz (6-0, 175) will vie for the quarterback position, although both will also see action in the secondary. Ozzy Carbajal is a threat at the flanker spot, where the 5-9, 160-pounder can use his 4.7 speed.

Sunnyside's best linemen figure to be junior Ralph Rosales (5-10, 190), senior Brian Huggins (6-1, 260) and senior Chris Romero (5-10, 200).

Some additional size is definitely available in David Chavez (6-1, 280) and Ernie Encinas (6-0, 250), a junior. Senior Dago Soto (5-10, 190) is a contributor at both offensive guard and defensive end.

Other skill position players are SE/CB Gabe Gallegos (5-10, 170), FB/LB Richard Lynch (6-0, 185) and RB/LB Brian Baurleen (5-10, 175).

NOGALES

"I am looking forward to a winning season," says second-year mentor Jim Paul. "The players have dedicated themselves to going to the playoffs. The program here is on the upswing."

Of course, it helps to have a terrific player like Ben Coronado back to lead the Apaches, a team that finished 5-5 in '91. Coronado is an all-league tight end. He stands 6-3 and weighs 225 pounds. He runs 40 yards in 4.7. And he can play defense too.

Altogether, Nogales has 17 varsity veterans back in uniform. In addition, Frank Granillo, a 6-4, 200-pound tight end-defensive end, has transferred in from Patagonia.

The quarterback slot is up for grabs between seniors Martin Flores (6-1, 175) and Jacob Leon (6-1, 200). Paul has plenty of running backs from which to choose, including senior Jose Ramos (5-11, 200) junior Juan Velasco (5-11, 220), seniors Juan Chavira (5-11, 190) and Jimmy Rodriguez (5-10, 175). The receivers are eleventh-grader Robert Bonillas (6-3, 190) and Manny Quirez (6-1, 210), in addition to Coronado and Granillo, of course.

The Apaches are also set in the lines, thanks to Rudy Baldenegro (6-0, 220), Carlos Ortiz (6-3, 250), Jorge Casteneda (6-2, 240), Gabe Kory (6-1, 190) and Omar Perez (6-0, 210).

SANTA RITA

Coach Bob Vielledent and his Eagles will carry on without their highly regarded field general Anthony Sanders, who is now quarterbacking at the University of Arizona.

Actually, Santa Rita played much of the '91 season without Sanders because of an injury.

"We played really well overall despite all the injuries," says Vielledent, "including losing one of the premier quarterbacks in the country (Sanders) to a shoulder injury." The Eagles finished 5-5.

On the plus side, Santa Rita returns 14 letterwinners who can play, including the likes of TE/LB Jeremy Butler (6-5, 230), SE/SS Key Hyland (6-0, 210), FB/LB George Flores (5-11, 200) and TB/CB Richard McCormack (5-9, 175), all seniors.

Juniors Darren Jackson (6-0, 180) and Barrett Baker (6-1, 175) should both start in the secondary. This duo will also vie for the quarterback position under Vielledent's watchful eye.

CHOLLA

This club will crank up its Run & Shoot again, as coach Gus Brisco will attempt to lead his guys to a winning record this fall. They were 3-7 in '91.

A couple of speed merchants – namely Robert Johnson (5-10, 165) and Tambutka Howard (6-0, 195) – should lead the way. Johnson is a senior running back-wide receiver-defensive back, while Howard splits his time at fullback and safety.

Other Cholla athletes to watch include RB/LB Buddy Perez (5-10, 170, Sr.), OL/DL Mark Rodriguez (5-10, 225, Sr.), SS Henry Rios (5-8, 170, Jr.) and OL/DL Jake Salazar (6-2, 235, Sr.)

Brisco predicts, "We should be a much improved team. We have some top players coming back that should help us improve our record."

SABINO

The Sabercats had another good year in '91. Coach Jeff Scurran's unit won seven and dropped three.

A remarkable 27 lettermen return, sparked by the likes of two-way tackle James Johnson (6-3, 240) and linebacker Jason Montano (6-1, 225).

Looking for playing time at quarterback are senior Ben Thrush (5-11, 175), plus juniors Jeff Saffer and Steve Horton. Saffer is a 6-3, 205-pound transfer from Amphi, while Horton called signals for last year's 7-0-1 junior varsity.

The skill positions will be occupied by Corey Hill (6-0, 190), Brendon Bolton (6-0, 185), Casey Davis (5-11, 185), Adib Khoury (5-11, 175), Colby Baty (5-11, 150), Casey Johnson (5-11, 170), Chase Newell (5-10, 205), Jo Jacobs (5-8, 150), Shawn McFarland (5-11, 180), Greg McFarland (5-10, 170) and Brian Schwanenberger (5-10, 170)

And the line is in good shape with Ian Woodford (6-3, 210, Sr.), Scott Gorczyca (6-1, 185, Sr.), Travis Miller (6-2, 220, Sr.), Chip Snow (6-2, 180, Sr.), Branden Stine (6-0, 185, Sr.), Jon Thrall (5-10, 210, Sr.), James Counts (5-10, 185, Jr.), Justin DiScenza (6-2, 190, Jr.), Jeff Snow (6-2, 190, Jr.) and Matt Traynor (5-11, 195, Jr.) in the fold.

Chad Brewer, a 6-1, 195-pound senior transfer, should be a factor at linebacker, along with Montano, Newell, Ken Sarnoski (6-2, 195, Sr.) and Seth Ringenbach (5-6, 170, Jr.).

MOUNTAIN VIEW

The Mountain Lions won their first league championship last year and they could do it again. Talented running back Kevin Schmidtke leads a group of 14 veterans back from the outstanding team (10-2) of '91. This 5-10, 185-pound sprinted to over 1,400 yards rushing as a sophomore.

"We will be in a rebuilding year due to graduation losses," says coach Wayne Jones, "but the season holds a lot of promise. We will field the fastest team in the school's short history."

Junior Marty Young (6-0, 185) and senior Will Nunn (5-9, 155) will also tote the pigskin, while the mainstays up front will senior guards Chris Litten (6-1, 195) and Vince Sottosani (6-0, 190). Another valuable Mountain Lion is junior Mark Kilian, a 6-0, 205-pound linebacker and placekicker.

FLOWING WELLS

Senior QB Cleve Gouby (6-1, 175) is one of 22 lettermen back in uniform at Flowing Wells. He threw for over 1,000 yards last year as the Caballeros went 5-5.

Junior FB Chris Villalobos (5-11, 225) and senior TE/DB Jay Jenkins (6-2, 185) should also contribute on offense, while seniors Brandon Chatfield (6-3, 215), Ruben Sainz (5-11, 230) and Chuy Mendoza (5-9, 170) should perform well along the line.

Tough non-league games against CDO and Amphi should prepare Flowing Wells for 4A Sonoran warfare later in the year.

DESERT VIEW

The Jaguars are looking to rebound from a heartbreaking 3-8 campaign. Coach Humberto Federico will have 22 veterans back to help in that effort.

Keep any eye on RB/LB Al Canez (6-2, 205), RB/CB Sean Dixon (5-8, 145), QB/LB Mike Spears (5-9, 165), junior RB/LB Matt Gonzales (6-0, 175), OL/DL Frank Kellogg (6-2, 225) and OL/DE Theotis McDaniel (6-1, 225) to set the pace.

DOUGLAS

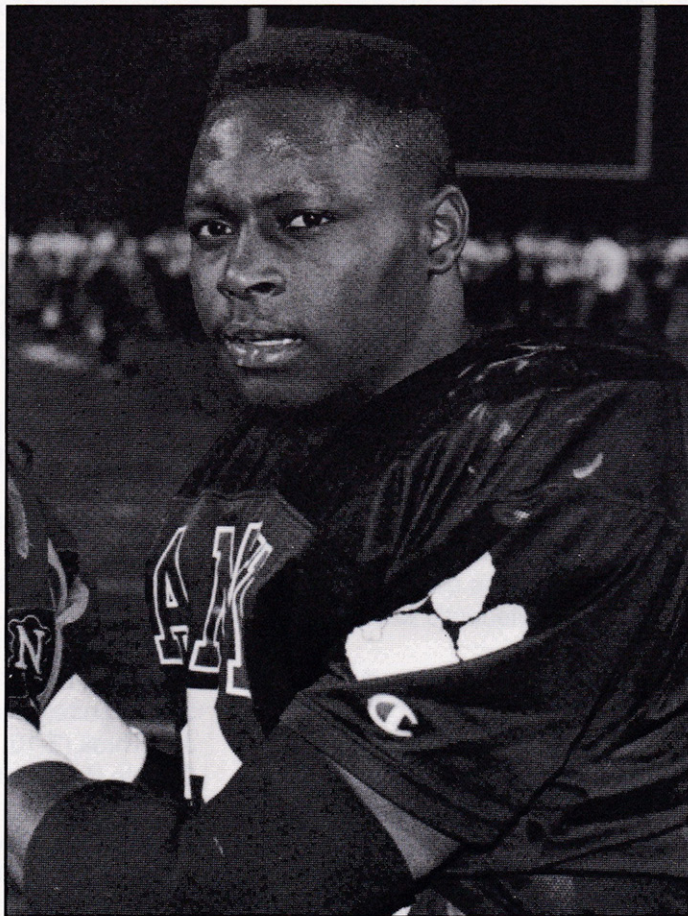

It's not pleasant to put things together again after a 1-9 season, but that's what Ron Ellsworth is trying to do with his Bulldogs.

He's counting on OT John Anderson (6-1, 255), junior FB/MLB Ian Carbajal (5-9, 168), SE Stephen Rockel (6-1, 160), RB Mark Valenzuela (5-8, 145) and junior TE Emmitt Hernandez (5-11, 210) to get the job done.

Solid Choices in 3A South

The 3A South should be super in '92. A wide-open race with as many as six teams capable of finishing on top.

We like San Manuel, thanks to its great signal caller Travis Barney and 21 other returnees from the 6-3-1 outfit of a year ago. Throw in some key graduates of the 8-0 JV and the Miners are tough to pick against.

Yet San Manuel will need everything Barney and company have to give to outduel the likes of Miami and Coolidge. The Vandals were ever so close to a perfect season in '91, winning 12 straight before bowing to Snowflake in the 3A title game. Sixteen letterwinners are still on hand from that club. Meanwhile, coach Larry Delbridge at Coolidge has a dozen veterans back from his team that finished with a glossy 8-2-1 mark last time out.

Safford, Santa Cruz and Marana could all be in the race for the region title; all three are legitimate contenders to make the state playoffs.

SAN MANUEL

"We are very big and fast," says head coach Mike Brown. "Our offensive line goes 240 and we return our whole defense. We also have Travis Barney and Anthony Gonzalez, who are two of the top players in the state."

Barney is really something special. He has fired for 3,676 yards and 32 scores so far in his career. He's merely 15-6 as a starter for the Miners.

After a fine junior campaign – he threw for 1,876 yards last year alone – this 6-2, 160-pound quarterback is poised to close out his prep career in a big way. He has a strong arm and 4.6 speed. He's one of many major college prospects in the state this year.

Gonzalez is a big guy (6-0, 280) who's invaluable at defensive tackle and offensive guard. A real leader in the trenches.

Other members of that huge line include juniors Robert Franco (6-3, 250), Justin Waggoner (6-3, 225) and senior Brodie Garcia (6-1, 210). The top backer should be Mike Velasco (6-0, 170).

The chief running threats figure to be Don Knight (5-10, 170) and Quinn Downing (6-0, 195), who is returning from an injury in '91.

MIAMI

Little dynamo Cedric Johnson (5-7, 150) leads a good nucleus of gridiron greats at Miami. He merely averaged 12 yards a carry from his running back post last year in the Vandals' excellent season. Johnson should really shine this fall.

But he'll have plenty of help. "This year's team will feature some explosive runners and some very talented receivers," says head mentor Bill Johnson. He's talking about senior Jaime Gonzales (5-7, 150), junior Robert Cano (5-10, 175), senior Mike Spurgeon (5-7, 150) and junior Rawley Evans (5-7, 150), all with at least 4.7 speed.

The quarterback is B.J. Noriega, a 5-7, 160-pound senior. Mainstays in the line include James LaMieux (5-9, 190), David Zorn (6-4, 250) and junior Nathan Felix (5-10, 235).

COOLIDGE

It's nothing new at Coolidge. "We have some good skill position players returning," says veteran head coach Larry Delbridge, "but we need to find offensive and defensive linemen."

The returning players have had success – a nifty 8-2-1 for the varsity and an even better 7-1 for the junior varsity last year – but moving up is always tough in the 3A South.

Heading that good group of backs and receivers is the trio of QB/OLB Jayson Hastings (6-0, 180), WR/DB Sherman Bishop (5-10, 150) and TE/OLB Freddie Jackson (5-11, 180), all seniors.

The line will be sparked by OG/LB Steve Palacios (5-10, 185) and C/LB Anthony Chuigo (5-10, 205).

Delbridge will field another fine team, but will they be good enough to capture region honors?

SAFFORD

The interior lines are also a big concern at Safford, a squad that split its 10 games last year. That was deceiving, since the Bulldogs struggled to a 1-4 record before winning four in a row to close out the '91 campaign. They did make the playoffs, although Safford exited in the first round.

Coach Ken Guzik is counting on four seniors and a junior to move the football. The underclassmen is QB Luke Arbizo (6-0, 180), while RB/DB Anthony Villalba (6-1, 170), FB/DE

Robert Gonzalez (6-2, 185), RB/SS Wayland Carter (5-10, 180) and TE/LB Todd Emory (6-1, 180) will add experience and talent.

The best up front for Guzik are OG/DL Art Gonzales (5-10, 190) and junior Jess Price (6-2, 190).

SANTA CRUZ

"Our defense should be solid," says head man Jay Denton. The Dust Devils have just five letterwinners back in the fold; all are two-way players. But they make up a rugged bunch of linebackers and defensive backs.

The backers include Art Legate (5-11, 190), Steve Rodriguez (5-10, 195) and Tony Cervantes (5-10, 190). The secondary standouts are Ray Hornsby (5-11, 175) and Luis Meza (5-8, 160).

When Santa Cruz has the ball, watch for Denton to call on Hornsby and Legate to carry the pigskin. Meza could be the top receiver from his split end post.

Youngsters up from the JV who could help are Chris Santos (6-1, 190), David Garcia (5-9, 195), Ralph Moran (5-10, 185) and Ricardo Alleman (5-11, 180).

SAHUARITA

"Last year our offense scored, but defensively we couldn't stop people from scoring," says head coach Ron Boyter, whose Mustangs won only twice in '91. "Our defense should be much improved."

Sahuarita does have 13 varsity veterans raring to go this fall, including safety Paul De la Ossa (5-11, 150). Others to watch are linebackers Matt Green (6-0, 175), Jon Johnson (6-2, 190), Ezra Shumway (5-9, 175) and defensive tackle Eric Lopez (6-2, 260).

The Mustangs need to crank up their Run and Shoot offense. If they can do that, you can bet that running back Jose Molina (5-8, 145) will be a factor.

It won't be easy, but '92 could be kinder to Sahuarita than '91 was.

More Southern Arizona Preps Await '92 Gridiron Campaign

5A CONFERENCE CIBOLA

Three key veterans will attempt to lead Cibola to another winning season; this bunch was 6-4 last year in the 5A Fiesta.

Coach Glenn Johnson is hoping that running backs Curt Cote (6-2, 195) and Juan Escalante (5-9, 170), both seniors, can get the job done on the ground. Cote is a particularly powerful runner. The signal caller figures to be senior Danny Hoeft (6-2, 170).

KOFA

The Kings are ready to try and improve their stock in the 5A Desert Valley Region. Unfortunately for coach Don Klostreich and his men, the '91 ledger was unfavorable – just two wins in 10 outings.

"With 17 lettermen back, we're excited and looking forward to the upcoming season," says Klostreich. "This could be the year we turn the corner."

Four key returnees should lead; that would be junior quarterback Jason Maas (6-1, 170), junior running back Vernie Gilmore (5-8, 170) and senior linemen Craig Schmitt (6-4, 260) and Eric Lohman (6-1, 185).

4A CONFERENCE YUMA

Despite a number of losses to graduation, optimism still abounds at Yuma. After all, the Criminals took eight decisions in 11 contests last year, finished second in the 4A East Valley and made the playoffs.

A dozen players are back, led by the passing combination of quarterback Bobby Rico (5-9, 165) to wide receiver Michael Johnson (6-4, 195). Rico accounted for 1,100 yards passing last year, while Johnson is a big-time athlete with a football future.

Manning the running back spots will be Paul Richards (5-7, 160), Fernando Frausto (6-0, 190) and junior Jason Givens (5-10, 175). In addition to Johnson, Andy Steinly (6-0, 175) and Phillip Davis (6-3, 185) should prove to be good targets for Rico.

Three juniors – Freddie Delgado (6-1, 265), Rob Butcher (6-1, 235) and Rick Reyes (6-0, 240) – and senior Leroy Cordova (5-11, 230) will handle matters up front.

CASA GRANDE

The Cougars also play in the 4A East Valley, but coach Mike Hayhurst's crew didn't enjoy as much success as the Yuma team. In fact, Casa Grande went just 2-8 last fall.

The strength of this year's team is in the lines, namely tackle Mike Uhrich (6-4, 230), tackle Jason Long (6-2, 310) and center Cade Clapp (6-0, 210).

However, Hayhurst does have a very promising skill position performer in sophomore quarterback Jason Lenderman (6-0, 165), who threw for 366 yards and five scores in three games on the varsity last time out.

The top returning rusher is senior Tommy Fudge, a 5-10, 180-pounder who gained nearly 300 yards and scampered for four touchdowns in '91.

2A CONFERENCE FLORENCE

The Gophers are coming off of another outstanding year, a season in which they sported a classy 9-2-1 slate and captured their third 2A state football title in the past five years.

Can they do it again?

Coach Tom Shoemake thinks his club has a real shot, with 20 letterwinners back wearing the Florence uniform.

Three quick guys – fullback Clay

Cordova (5-9, 180), running back Chris George (5-11, 175) and wide receiver James Cartwright (5-10, 160) – should give this offense some legitimate firepower. The field general will be junior Andrew Ramirez (6-4, 180).

Shoemake certainly has some remarkable size along the offensive line and the defensive front; take a look at Ricky Lopez (6-1, 260), junior Adam Slaughter (6-1, 260), Steve Turner (6-2, 260), Bobby Frazier (5-11, 255) and sophomore Miguel Felix (6-1, 280).

HAYDEN

First-year coach Joe Estrada inherits but six lettermen from last year's 2-6-1 squad at Hayden. "I really don't know what to expect from the kids," says Estrada, "since this is my first season here. I do know since our numbers will be low that our kids will need to work much harder to try and match the tougher teams in our conference."

The biggest – and possibly the best – of the Lobos is senior two-way lineman Guillermo Ortega (6-2, 240). The competition at running back should be fierce with the likes of Joe Becerra (6-1, 190), Orlando Felix (5-8, 160), Ricardo Padilla (5-7, 160), junior Dennis Chroninger (5-9, 170) and soph Joe Goga (5-9, 180) all pushing for playing time. Each of these players will also see substantial time at one of the linebacker or secondary positions on defense.

Other youngsters being counted on include junior OL/DL Aaron Cruz (5-9, 175), sophomore QB/DB Bryan Oatis (5-7, 140), junior OL/DL Carlos Arbizio (5-10, 180), sophomore DB Mike Strickland (5-9, 150) and junior DB Dave O'Brien (5-8, 160).

BISBEE

In '91 the Pumas put together their first winning season (5-4) in 19 years, so spirits are obviously a little higher than they've been for quite some time.

Third-year mentor Fred Giacoletti is hoping for more improvement this fall. "We will have size and speed," states Gaicoletti. "The only thing that could hold us back is a lack of a winning attitude. We're slowly but surely changing that."

Four twelfth-graders and a tenth-grader are helping to make that change. The upperclassmen are RB/LB Leroy Long (5-11, 180), OT/DT Jon Alshouse (6-2, 235), OG/DT Rich Morales (5-11, 225) and OT/DT Miguel Hernandez (6-3, 250). The young guy is soph QB Gabe Lindstrom (6-4, 190), definitely a player to watch.

WILLCOX

Next up are the Cowboys, who emerged as the 2A East Region champs last year with a perfect 7-0 mark. Overall, Willcox registered a fine 8-3 record, bowing out in the state semifinals against eventual 2A winner Florence.

Nineteen performers from that unit are back to see if they can take the next step. The leader of the returnees is FB Robert Rodriguez (5-11, 170), who ran for over 1,000 yards and contributed a dozen TD's last season. He was an all-conference pick and an honorable all-state selection.

Coach Michael McCahan anticipates the following players will be his mainstays: TE J.D. Burgess (5-11, 180, Jr.), T Cody Evans (6-0, 210, Sr.), T Steve Ward (5-9, 200, Jr.), T Andy Tevly (6-4, 240, Jr.), LB George Squire (5-10, 170, Jr.), QB Fred Walker (5-11, 150, Sr.), C Bill Flowders (5-10, 200, Sr.), S Shannon Webster (5-9, 140, Sr.) and LB Bryan Riggs (5-10, 150, Sr.).

MORENCI

Coach Reynaldo Peru should have a good team at Morenci. Nine capable veterans will form a good nucleus and members of last year's 8-0 JV can certainly lend a hand.

The offensive attack will be keyed by QB Jimmy Enriquez (So.), RB Shane Stacy (Jr.), FB Steven Lozano (Jr.), WB Ted Holt (Sr.), WR Michael Carbajal (Sr.) and TE Lance Hill (Sr.).

In the trenches watch for seniors Mario Verdugo and Adrian Carrusco to stand out.

The Wildcats don't have much size, but they should be formidable in '92.

PIMA

The tough-luck (3-6) Roughriders have a new coach and a lot of rebuilding to do. Just seven from last year's varsity return.

However, there's good talent and leadership available from two seniors – QB/OLB Troy Judd (5-10, 175) and WR/S Justin McBride (6-1, 165).

Providing additional support are RB/OLB Ted Hinton (5-11, 170), junior OT/MLB Eben McWhorter (6-1, 205), junior OT/MLB Flynt Smith (6-1, 175) and junior WR/S Jason McEuen (6-2, 180).

GILA BEND

The Gila Monsters dipped just below the .500 mark, finishing with a 4-6 slate. With two heartbreaking losses included, a winning season wasn't far from reach.

But the upcoming campaign could be a good one, thanks largely to the presence of seniors Chuck Cavanaugh (5-11, 170), Delson Gonzalez 5-9, 190) and Gabriel Alvarez (5-8, 170). Cavanaugh is a gifted receiver and defensive back, while the other two are combination running backs-defensive backs.

1A CONFERENCE PATAGONIA

Concluding a magnificent 11-0-1 season with another state crown made '91 something special for the Lobos. The goal for '92?

To rule the 1A South again and to take another run at the big prize.

If Patagonia gets there, you can be assured that coach Bill House will be praising the likes of four seniors – RB/LB German Montiel (5-10, 170), RB/LB Rick Nord (6-0, 175), OL/DL Davy Urquides (6-0, 205) and RB/DB Ruben Gallardo (5-10, 150).

Altogether, 17 talented and experienced players are still around from that great club of a year ago, so the beat goes on at Patagonia.

FT. THOMAS

Bill Stiver has a potential contender at Ft. Thomas, where the Apaches welcome back 18 quality players from last fall. Now, that club finished with a 4-4 mark, but better days appear to be just around the corner.

Ft. Thomas fans know that this is a senior-dominated team, led by Gerald Kitcheyan (6-0, 170, S), Jimmy Moses (5-11, 175, CB), Steve Cox (5-10, 195, C), Rocky Kindelay (5-10, 175, LB), Allen Gilbert (5-9, 160, QB) and Daniel Hosay (5-10, 180, RB).

VALLEY UNION

Tom Davis expects a rebuilding year at Valley Union. And the Blue Devils were down a bit last year, going 4-4 for the campaign.

"It was the worst season we've had in 12 years," says Davis. "It was the first time in eight years that we did not go to the state playoffs. Our leadership was weak."

If the Blue Devils are to get back to their winning ways, the team will have to overcome its lack of speed.

The signal caller should be senior Darek Anderson (5-8, 150), although junior Vernon Bragael (6-0, 145) is also available. The running back corps will feature Sam Hermosillo (5-10, 150), while the receivers should be Ernie De La Cruz (5-10, 145) and junior Preston White (6-1, 150).

Valley Union's top interior lineman is Jason Scheonfelder (6-0, 175).

CLIFTON

With a team made up primarily of freshmen and sophomores, the Trojans finished without a win (0-8) last year. Things should improve some for coach R. Aguallo this year, but this young team will eventually grow up and then – look out!

Stalwarts for '91 should be TE/LB Frank Chavez (5-10, 155), RB/DE Eddie Navarette (5-10, 165), SE/DB Clarencio Perez (5-10, 140), FB/LB Chris Aguallo (6-2, 210), FB/LB Agapito Nabor (5-10, 155) and OG/DE Jason Auila (6-1, 215).
